

138 Candidates Pass February 2023 Washington State Bar Exam

SEATTLE, WA [April 8, 2023/UPDATED on March 19, 2024] — The Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) announced that 138 candidates passed the Uniform Bar Exam administered in February 2023<sup>[1]</sup>. Administered over a two-day period, the Exam is a substantive law exam for those interested in becoming licensed in Washington to practice law as a lawyer, and includes multiple choice, essay and performance questions. The other required component of the Washington Bar Exam is an exam on professional responsibility (the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam or MPRE). Completion of a separate online educational component with accompanying online exam addressing specific areas of Washington law (the Washington Law Component) is also required to qualify for admission. The WSBA will recommend successful candidates who also have passed a character and fitness review and completed other pre-licensing requirements to the Washington Supreme Court for entry of an order admitting them to the practice of law in Washington as a lawyer.

See the full pass list on our website. Passage percentages are given below.

[1] The number of applicants who passed the exam and pass percentages were updated according to the order issued by the Washington Supreme Court on March 15, 2024, reducing the minimum UBE passing score in Washington from 270 to 266 for all bar exams administered from July 2020 forward, including examinations already administered in February 2023, July 2023, and February 2024.
