The NCBE exam fee is refundable if an applicant withdraws their application for the bar exam no later than 4:00 p.m. PT the Friday prior to the first day of the exam.

D. Technology Fee

All bar exam applicants are required to pay a Technology Fee through their NCBE account. The Technology Fee is refundable through the applicant's NCBE account if the applicant withdraws from the exam by 4:00 p.m. PT the Friday prior to the first day of the exam.

E. NCBE Investigation Fee

The following applications are referred to the NCBE for verification and investigation of the information in the application: UBE Score Transfer Applications by General Applicants with a foreign law degree who do not have an ABA JD or did not complete Washington’s Law Clerk Program; Bar Exam Applications by General Applicants applying under APR 3(b)(4)(B); House Counsel Applications; Foreign Law Consultant Applications; and all applications by Attorney Applicants, except for applications for military spouse admission by motion under APR 3(c)(2). These applicants are required to pay a nonrefundable investigation fee to the NCBE. See Section V of these policies for all NCBE requirements.

F. Forms of Payment and Payment Deadlines

All bank card transactions are subject to a separate non-refundable transaction fee of 2.5%. There is no transaction fee for payments by electronic funds transfer (EFT) or check.

For exam applicants, payments by check must be received or postmarked by the application deadline. Payments received or postmarked after the first deadline will incur a late filing fee. Applications will not be accepted if payment is received or postmarked after the late filing deadline.

For exam applicants, if payment by EFT or check is declined, then applicants will have one additional opportunity to resubmit payment within five business days from notification of the declined payment. If payment is not resubmitted within the five business days, a late fee will be assessed for applications submitted by the first deadline. If the late filing deadline has passed and payment is not resubmitted within five business days from the notification of the declined payment, then the application will not be accepted.

G. Withdrawals and Refunds

For all applicants, the WSBA application fee includes a non-refundable administrative processing fee as set forth below. An exam applicant must withdraw an application at least 18 days prior to the date of the examination for a partial refund of the WSBA application fee. Petitioners under APR 25 and all other applicants must withdraw their applications no later than one year after filing the application to receive a partial refund of the WSBA application fee. The Bar will issue a refund of the WSBA application fee less the administrative fee. The partial refund policy applies to applications that are disqualified. Any late filing fees paid, and any investigation costs are nonrefundable. For exam applications, no refunds of the WSBA application fee will be issued for withdrawals or disqualifications made less than 18 days prior to the date of the exam. A bar exam applicant will receive a refund of only the NCBE Exam Fee if the application is withdrawn by 4:00 p.m. PT the Friday before the first day of the exam. Exam applicants forfeit all fees if they do not show up for the exam. Exam applicants cannot transfer their applications or application fees to a different exam.

If there are extraordinary circumstances that prevent an applicant from taking the examination (e.g., a serious medical emergency, death in the immediate family, significant health problems, house fire), a written request must be delivered to the Bar within 18 days after the exam in order to receive a refund of the NCBE Exam Fee minus the cancellation fee assessed by the NCBE and a partial refund of the WSBA application fee as set forth above. The Bar may require the applicant to submit supporting documentation for the request.

IV. CHARACTER & FITNESS REVIEW

All applicants are subject to a character and fitness review prior to being admitted to practice law in Washington State. The responsibility for full disclosure rests entirely upon the applicant. Permission to sit for the examination or admission to practice law may be withheld pending a hearing before the Character and Fitness Board and a final determination by the Washington Supreme Court regarding whether the applicants have met their burden of proving that they are of good moral character, fit to practice law and have met the Essential Eligibility Requirements. See APR 20-24.3. Factors considered by Admissions staff and Bar Counsel when determining whether an applicant should be referred to the Character and Fitness Board are set forth in APR 21(a).

Washington requires resolution of all character and fitness issues at least 18 days prior to sitting for the exam. Exam applicants with unresolved character and fitness issues after this deadline will not be permitted to sit for the exam and will have their application transferred to the next exam. Applicants may choose to withdraw from the exam and receive a partial refund if the request is made at least 18 days prior to the first day of the exam in lieu of transferring to the next exam. Therefore, applicants who disclose any information that may raise an issue of character or fitness are advised to file their applications early in the registration period. Early filing or providing information prior to the 18-day deadline does not guarantee all issues will be resolved 18 days prior to the exam.

All petitions for reinstatement under APR 25 are referred to the Character and Fitness Board for hearing, per APR 25.3(b). Petitioners will be assigned to the next available licensing exam only after receiving Washington Supreme Court approval of their petition.

V. NCBE REPORT REQUIREMENT

The following applications are referred to the NCBE for verification and investigation of the information in the application: UBE Score Transfer Applications by General Applicants with a foreign law degree who do not have an ABA JD or did not complete Washington's Law Clerk Program; Bar Exam Applications by General Applicants applying under APR 3(b)(4)(B), House Counsel Applications, Foreign Law Consultant Applications, and all applications by Attorney Applicants, except for applications for military spouse admission by motion under APR 3(c)(2). Applicants who have an application that is referred to the NCBE will be contacted by the NCBE and required to pay an investigation fee and submit authorization and release forms directly to the NCBE. The Bar cannot finish processing applications until the report is received from the NCBE. If the NCBE terminates work on an application because of the applicant's failure to comply with NCBE requirements, the WSBA may disqualify the application.

Applicants applying for an exam will not be allowed to sit for the exam if the Bar does not receive a complete report from the NCBE at least 18 days prior to the first day of the exam; in that case, the application will be transferred to the next exam. These applicants may choose to withdraw from the exam in lieu of transferring to the next exam. Any refunds due will be made according to the Withdrawal and Refunds provision in Section III.G.

NCBE reports are valid for one calendar year from the date the Bar receives the completed report from the NCBE, after which a supplemental or new NCBE report will be required. See the NCBE website for additional information: <http://www.ncbex.org/character-and-fitness/jurisdiction/wa>.

VI. REQUESTS FOR TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS

Any bar exam applicant requesting testing accommodation for a disability must ask for such accommodation through the online admissions site by the applicable late application filing deadline. Any LPO exam applicant requesting testing accommodation for a disability must ask for such accommodation through the online admissions site by the late application filing deadline for that LPO exam. Applicants requesting testing accommodations must provide appropriate documentation of the disability and specify the extent to which they are requesting that the standard testing procedures need to be modified. The applicant is responsible for demonstrating their need for any requested accommodations. The Bar reserves the right to make final judgment concerning testing accommodations and may have any submitted documentation reviewed by a specialist. See the online admissions site for additional information regarding accommodation requests and required documentation.

Any testing accommodation may not compromise the integrity or security of the examination or affect the standards set for the examination. After the Bar provides notice to an applicant of the testing accommodations granted to that applicant, the applicant must acknowledge that they read and understand the accommodations granted no less than 18 days prior to the first day of the examination.

VII. SPECIAL REQUESTS FOR THE EXAM ROOM

For good cause shown, applicants may be permitted to bring otherwise prohibited items into the exam room. Examples of items are pillows/lumbar supports, ergonomic chairs, book stand, wrist rest, medication, external keyboard, and religious attire. In addition, applicants may request a specific seating location in the exam room due to a medical condition.

The Bar will provide a room for nursing people. Nursing people may use the nursing room before and after the exam, during breaks and during the exam. An applicant must be accompanied by a proctor if the nursing room is used during the exam session.

All special requests for an exam must be made on the online admissions site no less than 18 days prior to the first day of the exam. All requests must be supported (if applicable) by a doctor's note.

VIII. LAPTOP USE AND TECHNOLOGY FEE REQUIRED FOR BAR EXAM

A laptop computer is required for all applicants sitting for the bar exam. Applicants for the bar exam must pay a Technology Fee and download ITS exam software through their NCBE account. The ITS exam software must be purchased and downloaded for each administration of the exam, even if used in the past. Applicants must sign a waiver of liability from ITS and the NCBE. Applicants who do not pay the Technology Fee and download the software by 4:00 p.m. PT the Friday before the first day of the exam will not be permitted to sit for the exam. There is no handwriting option available for the NextGen UBE.

The only exception is for representatives from law schools and WSBA approved programs who may be present in designated areas during the lunch break or at the end of the second day of the bar exam. Law school representatives should notify WSBA in advance and follow instructions from the WSBA. No pets are allowed at the exam site. Service animals may be approved as part of a testing accommodations request.

Applicants must be seated in the exam room prior to the start of exam instructions. Applicants arriving late or who are not in their assigned seat in the exam room at the start of oral instructions will not be permitted to sit for the exam.

B. Grading and Results for All Examinations

(1) Grading of examinations shall be anonymous. Graders shall be provided exam answers with only the applicant ID number to identify to whom the answer belongs. Names or other personal information that would identify an applicant is not provided to the graders. All information matching names and numbers of the applicants shall be kept in the custody of the Bar until all examinations have been graded and each examination has been given either a pass or fail grade by applicant number only.

(2) There is no review or appeal of final examination results. APR 4(b).

(3) The names of successful applicants will be posted on the Bar's website.

(4) Unsuccessful exam applicants may reapply and retake the exam in the same manner as any other applicant.

C. Lawyer Bar Examination

(1) All lawyer bar exam applicants must pass the NextGen Uniform Bar Exam (UBE) prepared and coordinated by the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The UBE is administered over one and a half days in accordance with the procedures established by the NCBE and the Bar.

(2) The Board of Bar Examiners is responsible for the grading of the written answers on the UBE. In order to assure fairness and uniformity in grading, the Board of Bar Examiners shall follow NCBE prescribed standards for grading to be used by all graders. The Board of Bar Examiners shall, as soon as practicable and within any guidelines prepared by the NCBE, certify the scores on the written portions for all applicants who have taken the UBE.

(3) Upon completion of the grading and certification, the Bar shall cause each lawyer bar exam applicant to be notified of the result of the examination. All results shall be reported to the NCBE in accordance with procedures established by the NCBE.

(4) All lawyer bar exam applicants will be provided with their final official scaled UBE score and any exam information the NCBE authorizes the Bar to share with applicants; and that same results information will be shared with the applicant's law school. Unsuccessful lawyer bar exam applicants will receive any additional materials authorized by the NCBE to be provided to applicants. No other raw scores, results information, or examination materials will be provided to applicants.

D. Washington Law Component

All applicants qualifying for admission as a lawyer under APR 3 and APR 25 must pass the Washington Law Component (WLC). The WLC is comprised of online materials and an online multiple-choice test based on areas or subjects of law that are specific to Washington State. The Board of Bar Examiners is responsible for the content of the WLC and shall publish the Washington state specific materials for applicants.

The WLC is self-administered by applicants and is available to applicants online after submitting the application. There is no fee to take the WLC. The WLC is an open-book test. Applicants may take the WLC as many times as necessary to achieve the minimum pass score. There is a mandatory waiting period of 24 hours after failing to pass the WLC the first time. Subsequent fails of the WLC require a 72-hour waiting period before retaking the test. The WLC minimum pass score is 80% correct. If after passing the WLC, an applicant fails the UBE, withdraws their application, or their application is disqualified that applicant must retake and pass the WLC after submitting a new application.

X. UBE SCORE TRANSFER APPLICANT PROVISIONS

UBE score transfer applicants must have a qualifying UBE score.

UBE score transfer applicants may apply in Washington as a UBE score transfer applicant while applying in a different UBE jurisdiction to take the UBE, with the intent of transferring a qualifying score from that jurisdiction to Washington. The applicant must notify the Bar of the jurisdiction where the applicant will take the UBE.

Applicants are not permitted to apply at the same time for admission in Washington as both an applicant to take the UBE in Washington and an applicant seeking to transfer a UBE score to Washington.

XI. EFFECT ON BAR EXAM APPLICATIONS AND APR 25 PETITIONS FOR REINSTATEMENT SUBMITTED PRIOR TO FEBRUARY 1, 2026

These Admissions Policies shall not apply to bar exam applications submitted prior to February 1, 2026, or to APR 25 petitions for reinstatement where the applicant or petitioner sat for the bar exam prior to 2026; instead, such bar exam applications and petitions shall be governed by the policies dated September 1, 2024. If an applicant or petitioner for reinstatement later sits for a bar exam in 2026 or later, then these policies shall apply to the application or petition.
