ADMISSIONS POLICIES OF THE WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Under the authority of, and consistent with, the Washington Supreme Court’s Admission and Practice Rules (APR), the Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association (Bar) has adopted the following Admissions Policies in administering those rules. These policies apply to individuals seeking reinstatement under APR 25 or admission to the Bar as a lawyer, limited practice officer (LPO), house counsel or foreign law consultant. These policies supplement APR 3-5, 8(f), 14 and 20-25. Any discrepancy or conflict between these policies and the APR is unintentional and will be resolved in favor of strict compliance with the APR.

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

A. Applications

Applications for admission to practice law in Washington must be completed and submitted online or as prescribed by the Bar’s admissions staff.

Payments received or postmarked after the first deadline will incur a late filing fee. Applications will not be accepted if payment is received or postmarked after the late filing deadline.

For exam applicants, if an application fee paid by EFT or check is declined, then applicants will have one additional opportunity to resubmit payment within five business days from notification of the declined payment. If payment is not resubmitted within the five business days, then a late fee will be assessed for applications and payment originally submitted by the first deadline. If the late filing deadline has passed and payment is not resubmitted within five business days from the notification of the declined payment, then the application will not be accepted.
B. NCBE Investigation Fee

Applications for General Applicants applying under APR 3(b)(4)(B), House Counsel Applicants, Foreign Law Consultant Applicants, and all Attorney Applicants, except for applicants eligible for Military Spouse Admission by Motion under APR 3(c)(2), are referred to the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) for verification and investigation of the information in the application. Applicants are required to pay a nonrefundable investigation fee to the NCBE. See section V of these policies for all NCBE requirements.

C. Withdrawals and Refunds

For all applicants, the application fee includes a non-refundable administrative processing fee as set forth below. An exam applicant must withdraw an application at least 18 days prior to the date of the examination for a partial refund. Petitioners under APR 25 and all other non-exam applicants must withdraw their applications no later than one year after filing the application to receive a partial refund. The Bar will issue a refund of the application fee less the administrative fee. The partial refund policy applies to applications that are disqualified. Any late filing fees paid, and any investigation costs are nonrefundable. For exam applications, no refunds will be issued for withdrawals or disqualifications made less than 18 days prior to the date of the exam. For all other applications, no refunds will be issued for withdrawals or disqualifications made later than one year after filing the application. Exam applicants forfeit all fees if they do not show up for the exam. Exam applicants cannot transfer their applications or application fees to a different exam.

Administrative Fee (nonrefundable portion of application fee):

- General, Attorney, House Counsel and Foreign Law Consultant Applicants: $300
- LPO Applicants: $100

If there are extraordinary circumstances that prevent an applicant from taking the examination (e.g., a serious medical emergency, death in the immediate family, significant health problems, house fire), a written request must be delivered to the Bar within 18 days after the exam in order to receive a partial refund as set forth above. The Bar may require the applicant to submit supporting documentation for the request.

IV. CHARACTER & FITNESS REVIEW

All applicants are subject to a character and fitness review prior to being admitted to practice law in Washington State. The responsibility for full disclosure rests entirely upon the applicant. Permission to sit for the examination or admission to practice law may be withheld pending a hearing before the Character and Fitness Board and a final determination by the Washington Supreme Court regarding whether the applicants have met their burden of proving that they are of good moral character, fit to practice law and have met the Essential Eligibility Requirements. See APR 20-24.3. Factors considered by Admissions staff and Bar Counsel when determining whether an applicant should be referred to the Character and Fitness Board are set forth in APR 21(a).

Washington requires resolution of all character and fitness issues at least 18 days prior to sitting for the exam. Exam applicants with unresolved character and fitness issues after this deadline will not be permitted to sit for the exam and will have their application transferred to the next exam. Applicants may choose to withdraw from the exam and receive a partial refund if the request is made at least 18 days prior to the first day of the exam in lieu of transferring to the next exam. Therefore, applicants who disclose any information that may raise an issue of character or fitness are advised to file their applications.
early in the registration period. Early filing does not guarantee all issues will be resolved 18 days prior to the exam.

All petitions for reinstatement under APR 25 are referred to the Character and Fitness Board for hearing, per APR 25.3(b). Petitioners will be assigned to the next available licensing exam only after receiving Washington Supreme Court approval of their petition.

V. NCBE REPORT REQUIREMENT

Applications for General Applicants applying under APR 3(b)(4)(B), House Counsel Applicants, Foreign Law Consultant Applicants, and all Attorney Applicants, except for applicants eligible for military spouse admission by motion under APR 3(c)(2), are referred to the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) for verification and investigation of the information in the application. Applicants who have an application that is referred to the NCBE will be contacted by the NCBE and required to pay an investigation fee and submit authorization and release forms directly to the NCBE. The Bar cannot finish processing applications until the report is received from the NCBE.

Applicants applying for an exam will not be allowed to sit for the exam if the Bar does not receive a report back from the NCBE at least 18 days prior to the first day of the exam; in that case, the application will be transferred to the next exam.

Applicants may choose to withdraw from the exam and receive a partial refund if the request is made at least 18 days prior to the first day of the exam in lieu of transferring to the next exam.

NCBE reports are valid for one calendar year from the date the Bar receives the completed report from the NCBE, after which a supplemental or new NCBE report will be required. See the NCBE website for

VI. REQUESTS FOR TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS

Any applicant requesting testing accommodations for a claimed disability must ask for such accommodations through the online admissions site at least 80 days prior to the examination date.
Applicants requesting testing accommodations must provide appropriate documentation of the disability and specify the extent to which they are requesting that the standard testing procedures need to be modified. The applicant is responsible for demonstrating their need for any requested accommodations.
Any testing accommodation may not compromise the integrity or security of the examination or affect the standards set for the examination. The Bar reserves the right to make final judgment concerning testing accommodations and may have any submitted documentation reviewed by a specialist. See the online admissions site for additional information regarding requests for testing accommodations and required documentation.

VII. SPECIAL REQUESTS FOR THE EXAM ROOM

For good cause shown, applicants may be permitted to bring otherwise prohibited items into the exam room. Examples of items are: pillows/lumbar supports, ergonomic chairs, book stand, wrist rest, medication, external keyboard or mouse, and religious attire. In addition, applicants may request a specific seating location in the exam room due to a medical condition.
The Bar will provide a room for nursing persons upon request. Nursing persons may use the nursing room before and after the exam, during breaks and during the exam. An applicant must be accompanied by a proctor if the nursing room is used during the exam session.

All special requests for an exam must be made on the online admissions site no less than 18 days prior to the first day of the exam. All requests must be supported (if applicable) by written documentation from a treatment provider.

VIII. LAPTOP USE AND EXAM360 SOFTWARE

Applicants for an exam requesting to use a laptop computer for the written portions of the exam must register, pay for, and download software from ILG Exam360. Exam360 must be purchased and downloaded for each administration of the exam, even if used in the past. Fees paid to ILG Exam360 are nonrefundable and nontransferable. Laptop users must sign a waiver of liability on exam day. Applicants who do not purchase and download the software by 18 days prior to the exam will be required to handwrite the exam.

If an exam applicant’s laptop fails prior to the exam, the applicant must contact ILG Exam360 to download Exam360 again.

IX. EXAMINATION PROVISIONS

A. Exam Security Policies & Exam Site

All applicants for all exams must abide by the Exam Security Policy and any other exam policies or procedures established by the Bar or the Washington Supreme Court.

Only applicants, WSBA staff, WSBA-authorized volunteers, proctors, WSBA vendors, law school representatives, and exam site staff and vendors are permitted at the exam site. No pets are allowed at the exam site. Certified service animals may be approved as part of a testing accommodations request.

B. Grading and Results for All Examinations

(1) Grading of examinations shall be anonymous. Graders shall be provided exam answers with only the applicant ID number to identify to whom the answer belongs. Names or other personal information that would identify an applicant is not provided to the graders. All information matching names and numbers of the applicants shall be kept in the custody of the Bar until all examinations have been graded and each examination has been given either a pass or fail grade by applicant number only.

(2) There is no review or appeal of final examination results. APR 4(b).

(3) The names of successful applicants will be posted on the Bar’s website.

(4) Unsuccessful exam applicants may reapply and retake the exam in the same manner as any other applicant.

C. Lawyer Bar Examination

(1) All lawyer bar exam applicants must pass the Uniform Bar Exam prepared and coordinated by the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The UBE consists of Multistate Bar Exam (MBE), Multistate Essay Exam (MEE) and Multistate Performance Test (MPT) questions. The UBE is administered over two days in accordance with the procedures established by the NCBE.

(2) The Board of Bar Examiners is responsible for the grading of the MEE and MPT questions on the UBE. In order to assure fairness and uniformity in grading, the Board of Bar Examiners shall follow NCBE-prescribed standards for grading to be used by all graders. The Board of Bar Examiners shall, as soon as practicable and within any guidelines prepared by the NCBE, certify the scores on the MEE and MPT portions for all applicants who have taken the UBE.

(3) Upon completion of the grading and certification, the Bar shall cause each lawyer bar exam applicant to be notified of the result of the examination. All results shall be reported to the NCBE in accordance with procedures established by the NCBE. All scaled scores and the applicant’s national percentile rank for the MBE will also be reported to the applicant’s law school.

(4) All lawyer bar exam applicants will be provided with the scaled written (MEE+MPT) score, scaled MBE score, total scaled UBE score and their national percentile rank for the MBE. Unsuccessful lawyer bar exam applicants will receive copies of their written essay and performance test questions and answers and written raw scores. No other raw scores, results information or examination materials will be provided to the applicants.

D. Washington Law Component

All applicants qualifying for admission as a lawyer under APR 3 must pass the Washington Law Component (WLC). The WLC is comprised of online materials and an online multiple-choice test based on areas or subjects of law that are specific to Washington State. The Board of Bar Examiners is responsible for the content of the WLC and shall publish the Washington state specific materials for applicants.

The WLC is self-administered by applicants and is available to applicants online after submitting the application. There is no fee to take the WLC. The WLC is an open-book test. Applicants may take the WLC as many times as necessary to achieve the minimum pass score. There is a mandatory waiting period of 24 hours after failing to pass the WLC the first time. Subsequent fails of the WLC require a 72-hour waiting period before retaking the test. The WLC minimum pass score is 80% correct. If after passing the WLC, an applicant fails the UBE, withdraws the application, or the application is disqualified that applicant must retake and pass the WLC after submitting a new application.

X. UBE SCORE TRANSFER APPLICANT PROVISIONS

UBE score transfer applicants must have a qualifying UBE score and must meet one of the qualifications for lawyer bar examination applicants as set forth in APR 3(b).

UBE score transfer applicants may apply in Washington as a UBE score transfer applicant while applying in a different UBE jurisdiction to take the UBE, with the intent of transferring a qualifying score from that jurisdiction to Washington. The applicant must notify the Bar of the jurisdiction where the applicant will take the UBE.

Applicants are not permitted to apply at the same time for admission in Washington as both an applicant to take the UBE in Washington and an applicant seeking to transfer a UBE score to Washington.
